

Introducing Quick Pay®!

J.P. Morgan Chase Quick Pay® is a secure payment service for employees not currently enrolled in direct deposit

What's happening?

On April 17th, due to the COVID-19 emergency, and to further protect our patients and our workforce, NYC Health + Hospitals is temporarily suspending the distribution and hand-delivery of paper paychecks

If you are not enrolled in direct deposit, you will be temporarily enrolled in Chase Quick Pay®, secure payment service program to receive your pay by electronic transfer or by regular mail

Prior to pay day, Chase will send you an email and/or text message with a link to accept electronic payment

You Decide

Decide whether or not you will accept electronic payment from Chase:

If you choose to accept:

- You must specify the bank account and financial institution where you wish to have your pay deposited
- You must take action to accept the electronic payment each time you are paid, or you will be mailed a check

If you choose NOT to accept:

- Chase Bank will automatically print and mail your paycheck to the current mailing address on file with Human Resources
- You will receive the mailed paycheck sometime in the following week

Verify your current mailing address and mobile number in Employee Self Service (ESS) today

Direct Deposit

You still have the option to enroll in NYC Health + Hospitals' direct deposit

It is the fastest and most convenient way to be paid
