Lincoln's Birthday: Interpretive Memorandum No. 84, issued by the City's Office of Labor Relations on July 15, 1996, announced that, effective January 1, 1997, the Citywide Agreement was amended to delete Lincoln's Birthday from the list of regular holidays for unionized employees (except those in prevailing rate titles) and to designate it, instead, as a "floating holiday." The Citywide Agreement was modified further to eliminate the floating holiday for covered employees newly hired on or after July 1, 2004. Additionally, employees in the Staff Nurse collective bargaining unit are not entitled to the floating holiday.

The treatment of Lincoln's Birthday as a floating holiday continues to apply to Group 11 employees hired before July 15, 2004, but is eliminated for those newly hired on or after that date. The floating holiday must be used as outlined in Interpretive Memorandum No. 84. Please note that unless otherwise provided by an individual Comptroller's Determination, Lincoln's Birthday continues to be a holiday for employees in all prevailing rate titles except for City Laborers and Electricians. Effective Calendar Year 2021, Lincoln's Birthday shall be converted to a floating holiday for Electricians, Supervisor Electricians, and Electrician's Helpers. Use of the floating holiday for the Electricians Unit will be pursuant to the rules contained in the Citywide Agreement/Interpretive Memorandum No. 84 concerning floating holidays.

Juneteenth: In accordance with the April 22, 2022 side-letter between District Council 37, the City of New York and NYC H+H, the 2001-2021 Citywide Agreement was amended to include Juneteenth as a regular holiday with pay. Additional side letters for Unions and Locals not covered by the Citywide Agreement have also been executed to include Juneteenth as a paid holiday.

Registered Professional Nurses: Employees in the Staff Nurse collective bargaining unit, except those in the titles Home Health Nurse (Per Visit) and Staff Nurse (Per Hour), are entitled to nine of the above paid holidays. The following are not paid holidays for this unit: Martin Luther King's Birthday, Lincoln's Birthday, Columbus Day and Election Day. As noted above, nurses in the Staff Nurse collective bargaining unit are not entitled to the floating holiday.
